

Sally beat over 8000 people to become an astronaut. Would you like to join her in exploring space?
Plan your persuasive letter to NASA explaining why you should or shouldn't be chosen for astronaut training.

The number one reason I would like/not like to be an astronaut is...	A key interesting fact about space to impress NASA...
Five words that describe me are...	You are writing to NASA. What tone should you use in your letter?
Three key skills I have that would/wouldn't be useful in space are...	Useful persuasive words/phrases you could use in your letter...
My hopes and dreams are...	What key, confident thing are you going to say to end your letter?

Now you have a plan, write your letter to NASA explaining why you should or shouldn't be chosen to be an astronaut.
Don't forget all your persuasive writing top tips.

Extra Challenge:

- Can you design a badge to wear on your uniform that shows your skills and talents?

Handwriting practice area with 15 sets of horizontal dotted lines for writing.

